EL ASESINATO DE ELENA GARRO: PERIODISMO A TRAVÉS DE UNA PERSPECTIVA BIOGRÁFICA. / Patricia Rosas Lopátegui, compiladora; María Luisa Mendoza, prólogo. Segunda edición. Monterrey, Nuevo León: Universidad Autónoma de Nuevo León, 2014. 1090p. 27cm. Bibl., bibl. notes, photos, illus., B&W and color photos. ISBN: 978-6072703247.

Compilation of articles and essays by and about prominent Mexican intellectual (1916-1998) originally published between 1940s and 1990s. Texts are introduced by Garro's friend and officially sanctioned biographer, and are accompanied by her extensive contextual interpolation. Intent is to rescue Garro's memory from "character assassination" (to which title refers; Garro died of natural causes) by factions favoring her ex-husband, Octavio Paz, and from right-wing forces who loathed and feared her ideas. Originally published in 2005, this second edition, double size of first, presents further selection of contemporaneous and subsequent newspaper and other articles about Garro and 100 pages of photographic images gleaned from press, publications and personal archives.
